RESIGNS POSITION AS ASSISTANT CASHIER

Hord W. Mann, who has for several years been the capable and faithful Assistant Cashier at the First National Bank, in this city, tendered his resignation Saturday at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the institution. The resignation was accepted, and White Varden, bookkeeper in the bank, elected as his successor. Mr. Mann has been an employee of the First National Bank for twelve years. In that time he has demonstrated his fitness for his line of work, and no young man in the community stands higher in the esteem of the men of finance of Paris. He has not indicated what line of business he will enter in the future.

NEED A SUBSTATION

Judging by the amount of mail received from and deposited at the Paris postoffice each day by the Mason-Hanger Construction Co., there is need of a postal substation on the Xalapa Farm, where the firm is engaged in a vast amount of construction work.

Three times daily from two to three well-filled sacks of mail are brought in from the farm, and taken back filled with letters and packages. Among the mail thus received and sent out from the local office are hundreds of letters addressed to and sent out by seven hundred Mexican laborers working at Xalapa Farm. These are handled at the local office and forwarded to their destination, without requiring the services of an interpreter.

"THE MOLLYCODDLE" AT LOCAL PICTURE HOUSES.

In giving to the public his latest screen effort, "The Mollycoddle," which is the third of his United Artists Corporation production, Douglas Fairbanks presents the most costly motion picture of his career, representing an expenditure of more than half a million dollars. The picture will be presented at the Paris Grand and Alamo Theatre Thursday and Friday.

Among the more noticeable of the "sets" in this picture is an exact reproduction of Monte Carlo and the historic and famous Casino, the Playground of the world's idle rich. The reproduction of Monte Carlo is only one instance of what may be expected of an elaborate as well as spectacular picture in "The Mollycoddle." Realism in every department of the production has been the keynote and those who have seen advance screenings have offered nothing but very favorable comment.

PUTTING THE LID ON.

One by one the bibulous are losing their beverages of last resort. The Bureau of Internal Revenue has placed blackberry cordial, wild-cherry wine, the elixirs of licorice, anise and bitter orange, compound spirits of juniper and myrcia, compound tincture of lavender and a number of other pharmaceutical preparations on the list of intoxicating liquors. Though Jamaica ginger, colloquially known as "Jackie," seems a long way removed from compound tincture of lavender, the law has ferreted out their relationship and published it abroad.
